Mr. Stebbins is to be congratulated. He is the first man to build up a local company, with stock held by small investors and has done this simply because he believes that these sime small investors should have in outlet for their earnings, without taking on worthless wildeat stocks. There is certainly much credit coming to him, as having brought about a condition of affairs as eminently successful, as things are now, when it is all due to his untiring energy and great ability.
